Overeaters Anonymous is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, hope, and the 12 steps of this program are recovering from compulsive overeating. We welcome everyone who wants to stop eating compulsively. There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions, neither soliciting nor accepting outside donations. OA is not affiliated with any public or private organization, political movement, ideology or religious doctrine; we take no position on outside issues. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer.

Serenity Times is a publication of the GBAI of Overeaters Anonymous. Submit materials at OvereatersAnonymousGBAI@hotmail.com. The editor reserves the right to edit for space and style. Reprinting of this material is permitted provided proper credit is given the source.

Thoughts on Dependency

Needing people in our lives is healthy, human and natural. Needing a single person to love at a very deep level, is also soothing to the soul's well-being. Love and attachment are not synonymous, however. They are close to being opposites. If we "attach" ourselves to others, our movements as separate individuals are hampered. Attachment means dependency; it means letting our movements be controlled by the one we are "hooked" to.

Dependency on mood-altering chemicals, on food, on people, means unmanageability in our individual lives. Many of us in this recovery program, though abstinent, still struggle with our dependency on a certain person or a certain friend.

The tools we are learning apply in all cases of dependency. It is healthy independence we are striving for--taking responsibility for our own lives--making choices appropriate for our personal selves. Loving others means letting them make their own choices unhampered by our "attachment." Are my relationships attachments or are they based on love? I will take an inventory of them today.

Experience, Strength, and Hope

I went to my first OA meeting on October 14, 2000. I went to lose weight and have shed 50 pounds. The miracle is I have kept it off, which I have never been able to do. I was a yo-yo dieter. I don't know how I did it because I didn't do it. My Higher Power, whom I call God, is doing for me what I couldn't do for myself.

My daughter was away for four months, and I missed her terribly. Instead of hitting the cupboards, I went to meetings, used the tools and worked the Steps. While she was gone, the pounds melted away.

My weight has stayed off and my jeans fit because I am in contact with my Higher Power every day. This program amazes me. After struggling with my weight all my life, when I finally admit I can't do it alone and work the Steps, my weight does not consume me as it once did. I am truly grateful for the physical recovery, but I have received much more – a Higher Power with me every Step of the way, sanity in my life, and the love and support of the Fellowship, one day at a time. Thanks for giving me back my life! — B.C., Vermont, USA (reprinted from August, 2003 issue of Lifeline.)
