OA is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, hope, and the 12 steps of this program are recovering from compulsive overeating. We welcome everyone who wants to stop eating compulsively. There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions, neither soliciting nor accepting outside donations. OA is not affiliated with any public or private organization, political movement, ideology or religious doctrine; we take no position on outside issues. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer.

From: For Today, April 13

We are all dangerous, til our fears grow thoughtful. John Ciardi

I can hold onto fear that serves the purpose of keeping compulsion alive, or I can turn my life — one moment at a time — over to my Higher Power. Does that thought provoke a tremor of anxiety? Fear keeps me locked into self-will. My fears may not make the headlines or be a threat to others, but compulsive overeating is a killing disease — slow, patient, agonizing. Yes, I want more to be revealed to me, so I may uncover the nameless terrors and put them in the healing light of my Higher Power.

The fears that clamp my being into compulsion fall by the wayside as I open my heart to God.

For today: I can find instructions for dealing with my fears in the twelve steps. For details, I refer to the AA and OA literature.

My Higher Power is what I turn to in a crisis.
