OA is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, hope, and the 12 steps of this program are recovering from compulsive overeating. We welcome everyone who wants to stop eating compulsively. There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions, neither soliciting nor accepting outside donations. OA is not affiliated with any public or private organization, political movement, ideology or religious doctrine; we take no position on outside issues. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer.

A New Year

When this time of year rolls around it often stirs up inside of us the desire for change. We want to make resolutions, put up all the decorations, begin cleaning out everything, lose weight, clean up our eating plan.

What is going on with you? Any of these urges surfacing? If so, what will you do?

If you're thinking of going over your eating plan, ask yourself a few questions:

- (1) How is it working for me?
- (2) I am getting the results I want?
- (3) Have I checked it out with my sponsor?
- (4) Is there some change that might work better?
- (5) Have I been trying to do it alone or have I turned to my Higher Power every step of the way?

We end our groups with "It works, if you work it." We are learning, little-by-little, that we can't do it alone. We must turn to others, our sponsor, the literature, and our Higher Power. This way does work.

So this new year of 2011 may be a time to re-evaluate. We definitely know it is a time to turn to Higher Power.
