Ring in Recovery:
Declare Your Freedom from Compulsive Eating
OA World Service Convention in Philadelphia
August 30-September 2, 2007
Loew's Philadelphia Hotel

OA is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, hope, and the 12 steps of this program are recovering from compulsive overeating. We welcome everyone who wants to stop eating compulsively. There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions, neither soliciting nor accepting outside donations. OA is not affiliated with any public or private organization, political movement, ideology or religious doctrine; we take no position on outside issues. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer.

WHY I KEEP COMING BACK

This is the place that opened my eyes to a magnificent HP!
Here I learned that I wasn't alone, wasn't the only one.
Here, people gave me hope and encouragement.
Here, you showed me how to laugh again, but not at myself, but at my humanness.
Here, you helped me open the doors that I had slammed shut in the past.
Here, you showed me how to air out that old business and clean up my part.
Here, I began to become more of the "real me," not the frightened angry, lost child.
Here, your hand of friendship and love was shared freely.
Here, you taught me that I am not a bad person, I just didn't have a program to work.
Here, by your example, I learned I could take responsibility for myself.
Here, you taught me how to reject the old familiar fears.
Here, you led me to nurture hope in myself, and to share it.
Here, you taught me how to be a good mom, friend, worker, a better person in every place I lived.
Here, I saw you keep coming back and continue to reach out with love to other—you taught me to give it away to keep it.
Here, you helped me learn that perfect was not an option.
Here, you told me to strive to be "pretty good."
Here is where I come and know I'm home.
